The Head of the Ukrainian President's Office, Andriy Yermak, arrived in the United States to discuss the Peace Formula put forward by President of Ukraine Volodymyr Zelensky and the strengthening of Ukraine's defenses.

He reported this on X, Ukrinform saw.

"I will have meetings in the White House, Congress, analytical centers, with representatives of public organizations," the official wrote.

"The President's peace formula, strengthening of Ukraine's defenses, comprehensive deepening of cooperation, and many other important topics," Yermak noted, citing the list of the issues on the agenda of his visit.

He said he arrived in the USA as part of a Ukrainian delegation headed by Yulia Svyridenko, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Economy of Ukraine.

The head of the President's Office thanked Ukraine's partners for their support.

As Ukrinform reported earlier, on November 11, in a phone call, Head of the Ukrainian President's Office Andriy Yermak and U.S. President's National Security Adviser Jake Sullivan discussed the need for a timely supply of weapons and ammunition for the effective defense against Russian invaders.
